This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

In spelling these orally, let the scholar first repeat the sentence as given by the teacher, and then proceed to the spelling of each word. Let the apostrophe be named in its order, as if it were a letter; thus: f-a-t-h-e-r-apostrophe-s, father's.

My father's horse.
Your sister's bonnet.
Rollo's sled.
Grandfather's cane.
Aunt's spectacles.
I'm sure of it.
Who'll do it?
Butcher's cart.
Baker's oven.
Printer's office.
There's a fly.
Spider's web.
I've heard.
You're witty.
What's that?
A sparrow's nest.
Tinman's shop.
Pedler's cart.
It's wrong.
I won't do it.
We'll go there.
What o'clock is it?
It's ten o'clock.
Isn't it right?
They've seen it.
Frank's sled.
Indian's arrow.
You can't do it.
I don't like it.
I couldn't get it.
I'll try.

What's this?
A dog's tail.
Elephant's tooth.
Benjamin's skates.
Mother's pincushion.
Doesn't it?
Couldn't you?
Sailor's jacket.
Tailor's shop.
Teacher's desk.
Yes, ma'am.
No, ma'am.
He'll find it.
We're doing it.
He's come.
You'll find it there.
I'd do it.
Jonas's advice.
A lion's mane.
It's a day's work.
Youth's Companion.
The Child's Book of Thought.
The Scholar's Friend.
Franklin's Life.
Parley's Tales.
Walker's Dictionary.
He said he'd get it.
I didn't do it.
Who's there?
It's a week's work

A Practical Arrangement of Words, of which there are two or more of the same Sound, but of different Spelling and Meaning.

This exercise may be varied. The teacher may give out a sentence, and require the spelling of the whole of it. Or, after giving the sentence, the particular word may be named, and only the spelling of that required. The sentences may be varied indefinitely. The black-board may be used to advantage in connection with this exercise, thus: write a sentence, leaving a blank for the particular word, and require the scholars to give the spelling of the word which should be inserted; or, write the particular word and require something appropriate to make up a sentence.

A.

I like the morning AIR.
He is HEIR to Mr. Rich.
Come now, ERE it be too late.
Did you eat it ALL?
Who broke the point of this AWL?
I must ALTER my bonnet.
At church I stood near the ALTAR.
Water is better than ALE.
Does any thing AIL you?
The ASCENT to the mountain.
I ASSENT to what you say.
Is there AUGHT which I can do?
You OUGHT to pay it.
You will cut you with the ADZE.
He ADDS to it every day.

B.

He is a BAD boy.
My father BADE me stay at home.
This is my BALL.
Don't scream and BAWL so.
He has a BALD place on his head.
How she BAWLED!
His feet were BARE.
He was as hungry as a BEAR.
That was a BASE action.
My father sings BASS.
I mean to BE there.
Will that BEE sting me?
Don't BEAT so hard.
Hold your plate, and take a piece of BEET.
Did you ever see a wild BOAR?
I am going to BORE a hole.
My brother is quite a BEAU.
Get your BOW and arrow.
I cannot drink BEER.
There is a funeral—see the BIER.
Does the BELL ring?
My sister is quite a BELLE.
The day of my BIRTH.
Which is your BERTH in the ship?
What BERRY do you like best?
Will they BURY him to-day?
The wind BLEW tremendously.
See the clear BLUE sky.
See the BOUGH of that tree.
Did he BOW to you?
This is good BREAD.
He was BRED to that business.
I must BUY a new book.
I went BY your house to-day.

C.

That man broke his CANE.
CAIN and Abel were brothers.
Please to SEAL this letter.
The man is coming to CEIL this room.
How dirty the CEILING of this room is!
Are you SEALING the letter?
He is confined to his CELL.
I am going to SELL my sled.
There are two hundred CELLS in the prison.

He makes and SELLS boots.
You will find some coal in the CELLAR.
Were you the buyer or the SELLER?
I wouldn't give a CENT for it.
Who SENT you there?
How the plants SCENT the room!
This COLLAR does not fit.
He is angry — full of CHOLER.
How your shoes CREAK!
Let us go over the CREEK.
Read the next CLAUSE.
See the lion's CLAWS.
Shall you sing with the CHOIR?
Bring me a QUIRE of paper.
Can you CLIMB that tree?
I am going to a southern CLIME.
What COURSE shall you take?
That is very COARSE cloth.
This is my best COAT.
The sheep are in the COTE.
Ten is the full COMPLEMENT.
That COMPLIMENT was well deserved.
I like the CORE of an apple.
Who commands your CORPS?
He is a CRUEL man.
I must buy some CREWEL.
There they CALENDER linen.
A CALENDAR is an almanac.

D.

My DEAR mother.
He ran like a DEER.
See the DEW on the grass.
How much is your DUE?
We must all DIE.
Can you DYE this cloth?
He was buried the day after he DIED.
Have you had your cloak DYED?
This DOUGH will make good bread.
A DOE is a female deer.
School is DONE.
Do you like a DUN color?
I shall DUN him until he pays it.

E.

Is that sheep a EWE?
Did YOU hear him?
The wood of the YEW tree is very tough.
My right EYE pains me.
I did not know it.

F.

I would FAIN do it.
He was sincere — he did not FEIGN.
I am quite FAINT.
It was all a FEINT — there was no truth in it.
What is the FARE to New York?
What a FAIR day it is!
Her FEET are very small.
It was an astonishing FEAT.
FLEE for thy life.
Kill that FLEA.
The bird FLEW away.
How it smokes! — the FLUE must be cleared.
A barrel of FLOUR.
Did this FLOWER grow in your garden?
The FOURTH house.
Go FORTH quickly.
Very FOUL language.
Do you like roasted FOWL?
Is that a FIR tree?
My cap is made of FUR.
You are a clever FELLOW.
The FELLOE of the wheel is broken.

G.

Can you open this GATE?
What an awkward GAIT that man has in walking!
A GILT-edged book.
Do you doubt his GUILT?
The coal burns well in that GRATE.
Washington was a GREAT man.
Bring me a nutmeg-GRATER.
It was a GREATER kindness.
Shall you be a GUEST there?
I GUESSED so.
He lived in GREECE two years.
Is that a GREASE spot?
I thought I heard a GROAN.
How that girl has GROWN!

H.

How HALE and healthy she looks!
Does it HAIL?
Let us go into the HALL.
HAUL, boys, HAUL away!
I went into each of the HALLS.
That horse HAULS well.
I love you with all my HEART.
A HART is a male deer.
I have a sore HEEL.
It will soon HEAL.
He took to his HEELS.
I shall, as soon as this sore HEALS.
Do you HEAR me?
I am HERE.
I HEARD the thunder.
A fine HERD of oxen.
With the axe you can HEW it to pieces.
I like the HUE of that sky.
We saw HIM there.
Let us sing a HYMN.
Don't get into that HOLE.
Is this the WHOLE of it?
He is a HOLY man.
His time is WHOLLY occupied.
At what HOUR will you come?
Is that OUR cow?
I must HIRE a chaise.
Look up HIGHER.
The miser will HOARD up.
He met a HORDE of robbers.
Ho! come here!
Help me HOE these potatoes.
Have you HOES enough?
You must give me a pair of silk HOSE.

I & J.

Which house does he live IN?
He stops at the INN.
Will you take some JAM?
He stood by the JAMB of the fireplace.

K.

Thou shalt not KILL.
Is that a brick KILN?
That man is a KNAVE.
The NAVE is the middle of a wheel.
You must KNEAD the dough well.
I am in great NEED of the money.
I KNEW him very well.
This is something NEW.
Can you KNIT a pair of stockings?
A NIT is an insect's egg.
Tie a KNOT in your handkerchief
That is NOT the way.
You do not KNOW how.
I tell you NO, you must not do it.
He KNOWS you very well.
What have you got on your NOSE?

L.

I LAID it on the shelf.
He helped LADE the vessel.
She had LAIN there a long time.
Do you live in that LANE?
LEAD is very heavy.
John LED his sister to school.
Keep every LEAF in the book clean.
I would as LIEF do it.
Does that pail LEAK?
A LEEK is a sort of onion.
Have you got your LESSON?
Does the storm LESSEN?
He LACKS prudence.
The strings are quite LAX.
Lo! there it is.
Your seat is too LOW.

M.

Who MADE that box?
Mother's MAID told me.
Mr. Postmaster, has the MAIL arrived?
Is that bird a MALE?
The MAIN thing is to do right.
What a long MANE that horse has!
He came from the state of MAINE.
Put your book on the MANTEL.
It is so cold, I must have my MANTLE on.
Some people do not eat MEAT.
I do not think it MEET to do so.
Let us MEET at the Frog-Pond.
With what measure ye METE, &c.
There is some METTLE in that horse.
Iron is the most useful METAL.
Power and MIGHT.
A MITE is a very small insect.

W.

Don't WASTE that bread.
You are too small around the WAIST.
WAIT a minute.
What is your WEIGHT?
You WEAR out shoes very fast.
A hardWARE store.
Which is the WAY?
How much do you WEIGH?
I feel very WEAK.
I was there last WEEK.
He is a WEAKLY child.
The Youth's Companion is published WEEKLY.
He is like a WAVE of the sea.
I WAIVE all my right to it.

Y.

10. The ? tells me that what goes before it must be read in the same way as I speak when I ask any body a question.

11. The ! tells me that what goes before it must be read in the same way as I speak when I see any thing that is strange or wonderful.

12. The ( ) tell me that the words enclosed must be read a little quicker than the rest, and with a lower tone of voice. They tell me, also, that these words could be left out without hurting the sense of the rest.

13. The " " tell me that the words enclosed were written or spoken by a different person from the one who wrote those not thus marked.

14. The [ ] tell me that the words enclosed explain something that precedes or follows.

15. The ☞ tells me that what it points to is very important, and should not be forgotten.

16. The - when found between two words, tells me they are united, and make only one.

17. The - when found at the end of a line, and after a part of a word, tells me the remainder is at the beginning of the next line.

18. The ¶ tells me something new begins there.

19. The } placed at the side of words or lines, tells me they are particularly connected with each other.

The teacher will, of course, regard many of the above as being only general rules. In the stops, for instance, frequent variations are necessary. It is well for the scholars to know that, in reading, they must often make a slight pause, and breathe, at places where there is no mark in the book. They ought to understand, too, that a dot after an abbreviation, is simply a dot, and not a period.

Boston was discovered in the year MDCXXI.
Boston was settled in the year MDCXXX.
Boston was changed from Town to City in MDCCCXXII.
The corner stone of the State-House, in Boston, was laid in MDCCXCV.

The Four Seasons of the Year.

April (Apr.) . . .	30	October (Oct.) . .	31
May	31	November (Nov.) .	30
Summer.		Winter.
June	30	December (Dec.) .	31
July	31	January (Jan.) . .	31
August (Aug.) . .	31	February (Feb.) . .	28

THIRTY days in September,
April, June, and November;
In all the rest, THIRTY-ONE,
Except February — that alone
Has TWENTY-EIGHT — yes, and more —
TWENTY-NINE, one year in four.

☞ TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. — There is no month February. Many people suppose there is.

Elements of English Utterance.

1. A simultaneous exercise by a whole school in the elementary sounds of the language, will be found interesting as well as highly useful. Should some teachers interpose the objection that they are unable to introduce such an exercise, our answer is, TRY, and do what you can. Every one can make a beginning. For instance, let the scholars pronounce the word April; then ask them, What is the sound of the first letter in that word? Their answer will be, A, giving, of course, the alphabetical name of the letter. This is one of the elementary sounds. It is one step in this useful exercise.

2. Next, give the word Arm. They all pronounce it. As before, What is the sound of the first letter? If they reply by giving the name of the letter, they must be convinced that their answer is incorrect. They must see that a in April and a in Arm are not the same sound. The teacher can now pronounce Arm with the a as in April, calling it Ayrm, which will show that there is a difference.

30. Q is much the same as k, in its formation.

31. R as in R-at, R-un, fa-R, fa-R-m. The tip of the tongue approaches the upper gum, and between the gum and tongue the breath is propelled, forming a quivering sound.

32. S, as in S-ame, S-oon, is the same sound as c in c-ent.

33. S, in a-S, i-S, wa-S, is the same sound as z. The position of the organs is precisely as it is in giving c in c-ent or s in s-oon. It is the addition of vocal tone from the throat which gives the z sound. Try Seal and Zeal.

34. T as in T-op, T-eeth, T-u-T. Press the tip of the tongue to the roof of the mouth, as in d; then force it suddenly away, and this whispering element is produced.

35. V as in V-ane, V-ine, V-el-V-et. The same position of the mouth as in f, with the addition of vocal tone from the throat.

36. W as in W-arm, W-ater, no-W; like woo before vowels, and like oo after them; formed with the lips contracted, as in the act of whistling.

37. X as in si-X, o-X-en. It is the utterance of the elements k and s in rapid succession.

38. X as in e-X-amine, e-X-ist. It is the utterance of the elements g and z in rapid succession.

39. Y, as in Y-outh, Y-ellow, is formed with the lips and teeth a little separated, and by squeezing the tongue against the roof of the mouth.

40. Z is the same sound as s in i-s, wa-s, &c.

41. TH as in TH-in, pa-TH. Apply the tongue to the edge of the upper front teeth, and force the breath between the teeth, to produce this lisping utterance.

42. TH as in TH-at, TH-y. The same as the foregoing, with the addition of vocal tone from the throat.

43. SH, as in SH-oe, SH-awl, is formed by putting the tongue up near the roof of the mouth, leaving a wide, thin space for the breath to escape, and produce this hushing sound.

44. CH, as in CH-air, CH-in, is executed by the utterance of t and sh in close succession.

45. WH, as in WH-at, WH-en, is a whispering utterance, much like h, and should commence as far down the throat as possible. It requires more action of the lips than h.

46. Exercise on the above elements will give a flexibility to the organs of speech, and produce a clearness, neatness, and accuracy of articulation, which are, perhaps, unattainable in any other way. It will also be found that the difficulties of some children in their enunciation, arise, not from defective organs, but from the fact that they do not know how to use them.

47. The black-board may be used to great advantage in this exercise.
